Petition under Article 227 of the Constitution of India

Present: Shri Ravindra Agrawal, counsel for the petitioners.

ORAL ORDER
(Passed on 10th September, 2007)

Learned counsel for the petitioner restricts his prayer to the extent that the Civil Suit wherein initially the temporary injunction was refused, which however was granted by the Appellate Court, be decided expeditiously.

It is informed that issue has not been framed till date. However, the written statement has been filed. Accordingly, in the light of the fact that interim temporary injunction has been granted by the Appellate Court, the interest of justice would suffice if the suit is expedited. Accordingly, this writ petition is disposed of with a direction to the Court concerned to make its earnest endeavor to decide the suit expeditiously so that the paddy crop standing on the field can be given to its real owner.

With these observations the writ petition stands disposed of.
